

NEW WORLD GENERATION INC.

July 28, 2014

Dear Shareholder,

For your convenience we wish to advise that as of August 31st, 2014, you will be able to view monthly updates when visiting our website www.newworld-generation.com

In our endeavor to keep shareholders informed, at the end of each month a monthly brief of activities and updated notices of progress made will be posted. To access this information please go to the Shareholder's Logon at the bottom left hand corner of the web page.

The User ID is: GreenIdea

The Password is: Turbine7

The above ID and Password is confidential and only for New World Generation shareholders. In order to proceed, when entering this section each Shareholder will be required to read and agree to the following Confidentiality Notice and Disclaimer:

Only shareholders of New World Generation Inc. (the "Company") are permitted access to his site. The Company is a company dedicated to Research and Development; therefore all progress updates posted herein are confidential and proprietary. By accessing the site, you hereby agree as follows:

1. All information posted on the site is confidential and proprietary information of the Company, and contains information which is not publicly disclosed, and such information may not be disclosed, copied, distributed or used in any manner whatsoever;
2. The information is subject to change, and accordingly, the Company expressly disclaims any and all liability for inaccuracy or incompleteness of any information contained in the site and has no duty to continually update the information. Only those particular representations and warranties which may be made in a definitive agreement if and when executed by the Company may be relied upon and have any legal effect.

This notice is being sent to all shareholders by regular mail to ensure that all are informed and have the option to take advantage of this provision.

Regards,

Peter Routliff, NWG Chair